AN ACT

Concerning Negroes and Persons of Color or of Mixed Blood.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, That negroes and their issue, even where one ancestor in each succeeding generation to the fourth inclusive, is white, shall be deemed persons of color.

2. Be it further enacted, That all persons of color who are now inhabitants of this State shall be entitled to the same privileges and subject to the same burthens and disabilities as by the laws of the State were conferred on, or were attached to, free persons of color prior to the [illegible] except as the same may be changed by law.

3. Be it further enacted, That persons of color shall be entitled to all the privileges of white persons in the mode of prosecuting, defending, continuing, removing and transfering their suits at law and in equity; and likewise to the same mode of trial by jury, and all privileges appertaining thereto. And in all proceedings in equity by or against them, their answer shall have the same force and effect in all respects as the answer of white persons.

4. Be it further enacted, That in all cases of apprenticeship of persons of color under chapter five of the Revised Code, the master shall be bound to discharge the same duties to them as to white apprentices, and the words "as are white" in section three, line three, are hereby repealed, and the word "apprentice" shall be read after the word "such," in said line, and the words "if a white person," in the second line of section six, are hereby repealed: Provided always, That in the binding out of apprentices of color, the former master of such apprentices, when they shall be regarded as suitable persons by the courts, shall be entitled to have such apprentices bound to them in preference to other persons.

5. Be it further enacted, That in all cases where men and women, both or one of whom were lately slaves and are now emancipated, now cohabit together in the relation of husband and wife, the parties shall be deemed to have been lawfully married as man and wife at the time of the commencement of such cohabitation, although they may not have been married in due form of law. And all persons whose cohabitation is hereby ratified into a state of marriage, shall go before the Clerk of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county in which they reside, at his office, or before some justice of the peace, and acknowledge the fact of such cohabitation, and the time of its commencement; and the clerk shall enter the same in a book kept for that purpose; and if the acknowledgements be made before a justice of the peace, such justice shall report the same in writing to the clerk of the court of pleas and quarter sessions, and the clerk shall enter the same as though the acknowledgement had been made before him; and such entry shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the allegations therein contained. For making such entry and giving a certificate of the same, the clerk shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents, to be paid by the party for whom the services are rendered.

6. Be it further enacted, That if any of such persons shall fail to go before the clerk of the county court or some justice of the peace of the county in which they reside, and have their marriage recorded before the first of September 1866, they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished at the discretion of the court, and their failure for each month thereafter shall constitute a seperate and distinct offense.

7. Be it further enacted, That all contracts between any persons whatever, whereof one or more of them shall be a person of color, for the sale or purchase of any horse, mule, ass, jennet, neat cattle, hog, sheep or goat, whatever may be the value of such articles, and all contracts between such persons for any other article or articles of property whatever of the value of ten dollars or more; and all contracts executed or executory between such persons for the payment of money of the value of ten dollars or more, shall be void as to all persons whatever, unless the same be put in writing and signed by the venders or debtors, and witnessed by a white person who can read and write.

8. Be it further enacted, That marriages between white persons and persons of color shall be void; and every person authorized to solemnize the rights of matrimony, who shall knowingly solemnize the same between such persons, and every clerk of a court who shall knowingly issue license for their marriage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and moreover, shall pay a penalty of five hundred dollars to any person suing for the same.

9. Be it further enacted, That persons of color not otherwise incompetent, shall be capable of bearing evidence in all controversies at law and in equity, where the rights of persons or property of persons of color shall be put to issue, and would be concluded by the judgement or decree of court; and also in pleas of the State, where the violence, fraud or injury alleged shall be charged to have been done by or to persons of color. In all other civil and criminal cases such evidence shall be deemed inadmissible, unless by consent of the parties of record; Provided, That this section shall not go into effect until jurisdiction in matters relating to freedmen shall be fully committed to the Courts of this State; Provided further, That no person shall be deemed incompetent to bear testimony in such cases, because of being a party to the record or in interest.

10. Be it further enacted, That whenever a person of color shall be examined as a witness, the court shall warn the witness to declare the truth.

11. Be it further enacted, That any persons of color, convicted by due course of law, of an assault with an intent to commit a rape upon the body of a white female, shall suffer death.

12. Be it further enacted, That the criminal laws of the State, embracing and affecting a white person, are hereby extended to persons of color, except where it is otherwise provided in this act, and whenever they shall be convicted of any act made criminal, if committed by a white person, they shall be punished in like manner, except in such cases when other and different punishment may be prescribed or allowed by this act.

13. Be it further enacted, That at the time now provided for the election of wardens of the poor, the Justices of the court of pleas and quarter sessions of each county, under the rules and regulations now prescribed, may, in their discretion, elect two distinct and independent courts of wardens; one of whom shall act as the wardens of the white poor, and the other as the wardens of the colored poor.

14. Be it further enacted, That the persons constituting each court shall be qualified as now provided; and the wardens severally, and each court shall have all the powers and authorities now conferred on them, and they and the officers of each court, and all other persons whatever, shall be subject to all the duties, liabilities and penalties imposed on them by chapter 86, of the revised code.

15. Be it further enacted, That the following laws and parts of laws are hereby repealed: First, Certain laws contained in the revised code, namely: The entire chapter one hundred and [illegible] slaves and free negroes, "except sections fifty-four, fifty-five, fifty-six, fifty-seven, fifty-eight and sixty-six, and these sections shall be so amended as to read, "persons of color" instead of free negroes in all cases where the latter words occur. Section two of chapter fourteen, entitled "boats and canoes." Sections ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, eighty-one, eighty-two, eighty-three, eighty-four, eighty-five, eighty-six, eighty-seven, eighty-nine, ninety, ninety-one, ninety-two, ninety-three of chapter thirty-four, entitled, "crimes and punishments." Sections seventeen, nineteen and twenty-one of chapter thirty-seven, entitled, "deeds and conveyances." Section four of chapter forty-eight, entitled "fences." Section twenty-eight, chapter fifty-nine, entitled "insolvent debtors." Section thirty-nine of chapter eighty-four, entitled "pilots." Sections fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen and twenty of chapter eighty-six. Secondly. Certain acts passed since the enactment of the revised code, to-wit: an act ratified on the sixteenth day of February eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, chapter thirty, entitled "an act for the hiring out of free negroes in certain cases;" an act ratified on the same day, chapter thirty-one, entitled "an act to prevent the sale of spirituous liquors to free persons of color;" an act ratified on the thirty-first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, chapter thirty-seven, entitled "an act to prohibit emancipation of slaves by will;" an act ratified on the twenty-third day of February, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, chapter twenty-three, entitled "an act to amend the sixteenth and seventeenth sections of chapter thirty-four, revised code;" and act ratified on the same day, chapter one hundred and seven, section sixty-six, of the revised code, relating to free negroes having arms;" an act ratified on the same day, chapter thirty-five, entitled "an act to change the rules of evidence in indictments for trading with slaves;" an act ratified on the same day, chapter thirty-six, entitled "an act to prevent free negroes from hiring or having the control of slaves;" an act ratified on the twenty-first day of September, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, chapter twenty-six, entitled "an act to amend section fifteen, of the one hundred and seventh chapter, of the revised code; an act ratified on the twentieth day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty two, chapter sixteen, entitled "an act to authorize the Governor to employ slave labor in erecting fortifications and other works."

16. Be it further enacted, That all other acts and parts of acts passed before the present session of the General Assembly, besides those enumerated in the foregoing section, the subjects whereof are revised and re-enacted in this act, or which are repugnant to the provisions herein contained, are hereby declared to be repealed, and of no force and effect from and after the ratification of this act, with the exceptions and limitations hereinafter mentioned.

17. Be it further enacted, That the repeal of the acts mentioned in the preceeding sections shall not affect any act done, or any right accruing, or accrued, or established, or any suit or proceeding had or commenced in any case before the ratification of this act.

18. Be it further enacted, That no offence committed under any of the acts hereby repealed, and before the time when they ceased to be laws of the State, shall be affected by such repeal, except that when any punishment shall have been mitigated by the provisions of this act, such provisions shall be extended and applied to any judgements to be pronounced after the repeal or cessation to have effect: Provided however, That in case of the conviction of any person of color for any such offence, he shall be punished therefor in like manner only as if he were a white man.

19. Be it further enacted, That no suit or prosecution pending at the time of the repeal, for any offence committed, or for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture incurred, under any of the acts repealed, shall be affected by such repeal.

E. F. Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime,
OR BONE MANURE.

WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.
We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufactured, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.
Messrs B H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:
"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E. F Coe's Super Phosphate of Lime for four years.—It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfull endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.
"We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing.
"Very respectfully,
"R. H. ALLEN & CO.,

The Plot Revealed--Another Revolution Threatened.

When we wrote our article in yesterday's issue, charging that a secret organization was being formed in North Carolina for the purpose of defeating President Johnson's policy and throwing the State into the arms of the Radicals, we had not seen or heard of the following from the New York Tribune. Yesterday the Standard publishes it, putting the first part in leaded matter, by which we understand it to endorse the correctness of the rumor and the plan.

We call upon the people of North Carolina to be on the alert, and upon the presses of the State, who are supporters of the President, to be up and doing.

The whole scheme is revolutionary—directly at war with the policy of President Johnson.—Let the plan succeed, and every thing in the Southern States will be again reduced to chaos. The action of the late State Conventions and Legislatures would be nullified—the civil government and civil courts abrogated—the President's proclamations set aside and ignored—the pardons of the President vitiated—the Southern States declared to have seceded and to be conquered States—every man who cannot prove a real or bogus Union character disfranchised—all property of "rebels" confiscated and the war of extermination renewed. People of North Carolina! choose ye between liberty and slavery—between President Johnson and the Radicals or "strait sect" men. The plan is most shocking—most revolting—portending the evils of civil war in North Carolina. Read the article from the Standard:

The New York Tribune says that it is reported that a new measure of reconstruction is about to be presented, coming from the loyal men of the Southern States. The details of this plan are given in one of our special dispatches from Washington. We learn on good authority that the statement may be relied upon.

The following is the statement of the Washington correspondent alluded to above:

The question of the recognition of the State Governments in the lately rebellious States will shortly be brought to a practical test. Measures have been taken by prominent loyalists in the South, and are now being perfected under the advice of leading men in Congress, to bring this question to an early decision. The plan is as follows: Loyal men, and they only, both black and white, in the States of Arkansas, North Carolina, Louisiana and elsewhere, have taken steps towards the formation of new State Governments. These loyal men, without respect to color, will shortly issue calls in their respective States for State Conventions, and elect delegates thereto; the Conventions so formed will frame State constitutions embodying the principles of loyalty, freedom and equal rights; will pledge themselves to the payment of the National debt, the repudiation of the Rebel debt, and the disfranchisement of the Rebels. This being done, they will then proceed to elect Governors, State officers, Representatives and Senators, the latter of whom will at once demand admission to Congress. The question thus being thrust upon that body, there is no doubt of the recognition of the Governments so formed, and the admission of the loyal members so elected. A number of true and loyal men of the South have been here for some days consulting and deciding upon the best method to be adopted, and having determined upon the plan presented above, have left for their homes to carry the same into execution. The matter has been kept very quiet up to this time, but as the movement in most of the States is now well under way, no harm can, and perhaps much good may, be done the Union cause by giving the facts to the public at this time.

Representative Men.

Our neighbor says, that the President would, no doubt, be glad to see the "test oath" changed, "so that Union men, like John Pool, Robert P. Dick, Thomas Settle, Wm. S. Mason, and others, representative men of the Union party, could take it." It is true that John Pool, Robt. P. Dick and Thomas Settle, Esqs., are representative men of the so-called Union party—by which appellative we suppose the Standard means the "strait sect" party—but it will be news to the public, to set down so private and modest a gentleman as W. S. Mason, Esq., as a representative man!!

The President would relieve us of the Freedmen's Bureau. The Standard insists on keeping it up, as the Radicals do.

Provisional Governors.

Our columns have been so burdened, and our time so occupied, we omitted to notice the reply of Mr. Seward to the resolutions of Congress calling for information from the President in regard to the Provisional Governors.

Mr. Seward states that all the Provisional Governors took the "test oath," except Gov. Holden, of North Carolina. He thinks that the omission in Gov. Holden's case was purely accidental, but that he took the amnesty oath.—We have it in our power definitely to state that Mr Seward is mistaken. Gov. Holden did not take the "test oath," for the simple and only reason, if it had been tendered him, that he could not take it without forswearing himself—This the Governor has often since stated. Yet he publishes Mr. Seward's statement without correction, as if he were willing to let the false impression made by Mr. Seward's statement go uncorrected.

The Standard insists that affairs should be entrusted solely to its party friends in this State, and asserts that such is the wish and policy of the President, who considers them alone as loyal. It denounces Gov. Worth, and his friends, as disloyal. If the President considered Gov. Worth disloyal, why did he relieve Gov. Holden and restore the State government, with Gov. Worth at its head?

The President was desirous of seeing the right to testify in the Courts extended to the Freedmen as a matter of right and necessity under the circumstances, and, above all, to stop the clamor of the Radicals, and as the only means by which the trial of our citizens, where negroes were concerned, could be turned over to our own Courts.

The Standard opposed it. We have charged it on that paper, and it does not deny it. Is it supporting the President in this? Why such reserve in the Standard? Is it afraid to offend the Radicals? It is rather difficult to ride two horses at once, neighbor!

The Standard assails Gov. Graham and lauds Mr. Pool. The latter was here about the time that that paper took its "new departure," having lately returned from Washington. Is Mr. Pool in the plot? We have no desire to assail him, though he is certainly vulnerable enough. Let him beware, and let him remember that opposition by the Standard is life, but its embrace is fatal!

Chesapeake and Albemarle Canal.

In pursuance of the action of the late General Assemby, Gov. Worth has appointed Hon. Wm. N. H. Smith and Col. D. D. Ferebee, commissioners to investigate the affairs of the Chesapeake and Albemarle Canal Company. The selection is admirable, both on account of the localities of the gentlemen and their entire competency for the work.

General Conference.

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will assemble at New Orleans, on the first Wednesday in April. This is an important Convention, and to it the eyes of that large denomination are turned. The following are the delegates from the North Carolina Conference:

Revs. N. F. Reid, C. F. Deems, D. D. B. Craven, D. D, N. H. D. Wilson, W. H. Bobbitt, L. S. Burkhead and R. S. Moran.

Revs. D. B. Nicholson, Wm. Barringer, and Wm. Closs, D. D., are reserve delegates.

These are all trust-worthy men, in whose hands the interests of the M. E. Church, South, are safe. We could wish most sincerely, that the course of the Northern Methodists would justify the hope that a re-union of the Church could be effected. In this regard, the Protestant Episcopal Church has given the other Churches a noble example. Were the Northern Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist Churches to follow the example of the Northern Episcopal Church, a union could be effected quite as easily. But alas! all these Churches are still for war. The Northern Methodists scout the idea of a union with the Southern Methodists except upon terms so degrading as to forbid it. They are determined to make war upon the Southern Methodist Churches and are sending their missionaries to supplant the Southern Churches.

The General Conference at New Orleans will make no proposition for re-union. Propositions must come from the other branch.—Meanwhile Southern Methodism has more to dread from innovators and interpolators upon her system, in her own borders, than from the aggressions of the Northern Methodists. Propositions for change are rife among the Southern Methodists. The Southern Christian Advocate goes so far as to advocate changes, which it thinks ought to draw the lines of distinction between Northern and Southern Methodism so strongly as to destroy most points of resemblance. It strikes us that such a course would so weaken Southern Methodism, as to give the Northern the vantage ground. We hope for the best, and would suggest that the entire Southern Church should make the General Conference a special object in their devotions.

Some of the Radicals insist that the pardons granted by the President are void. A few days since, the Standard threatened all who had been pardoned with a revocation thereof. This could not be by the President, for he has expressed no such opinion or wish. Of course it was to be done by the Radical friends of the Standard. One of their chief complaints against the President is that he has granted these pardons.

New Hampshire Elections.

Smyth, Republican, has been elected Governor of New Hampshire by some 5,000 majority. This is about the same majority with that of last year.

Freedman's Code.

We refer the reader to the first page for a correct copy of the bill recently passed by the Legislature in regard to Negroes, and persons of color or mixed blood.

National Restoration.

Under this caption, the National Intelligencer, of the 13th inst., contains a long and able communication, from a member elect of the House of Representatives from North Carolina, who, it says, is "unencumbered by any of the disabilities with which personal qualification has been embarrassed." This may be so, upon a liberal and generous construction of the "Test Oath," though we know of no gentleman elected to Congress from this State, who claims to be, under the Radical interpretation of that oath, thus unencumbered, except, perhaps, the Hon. A. H. Jones, who, we have understood, did set up the pretension until a visit to Washington convinced him even of his disability, under that interpretation.

There are many statements and expressions contained in the letter from which we dissent. We particularly object to the assumption, that there was a "large Union party in North Carolina throughout the entire war." We contend, as we have all along insisted, that, until our people became convinced that the cause was hopeless,—in other words, until they were whipped—the "Union party" in North Carolina was most inconsiderable both in numbers and influence. We almost equally dissent from the proposition that if our State "had occupied the geographical position of Virginia," her course would have been different from what it was, after the proclamation of Mr. Lincoln.—However, the letter contains so much that is just and truthful, that we cannot refrain from laying portions of it before our readers.

After a cursory and interesting summary of the theory and history of the Government down to the period of the civil war, the writer goes on to say:

"In pursuance of what they regarded as an undoubted right, many of the Southern States attempted to separate themselves from the Government of the United States. In North Carolina, however, this doctrine never obtained the foothold which it possessed in the other Southern States. Her great statesmen—the Stanleys, the Gastons, the Badgers, the Grahams, the Moreheads, the Boydens, the Gilmers, and many others—had taught the opposite doctrine. Only a small minority of her people—certainly not more than one third or one-fourth—had ever imbibed the fatal heresy. She was strongly attached to the Union of our fathers, and when she did follow her Southern sisters in their mad career, she was forced to do so, or thought she was, by circumstances over which she had no control, by the action of the coterminous States of Tennessee and Virginia. If she had occupied the geographical position of Virginia, her people would have remained true to the Union, and would have done battle for its preservation. Even as it was, there was a large Union party in North Carolina throughout the entire war. The final result had been expected here for nearly two years before it came, and when it did come it was accepted by her people in good faith. They have abandoned the fatal heresy of secession—those of them that ever entertained it—forever. Their State Convention declared that the ordinance of secession is now and ever has been null and void. From the day of the collapse of the rebellion they have desired nothing so much as to be restored again to their former relations to the Government of the United States, from which, five years ago, they were ruthlessly torn away. And, notwithstanding she has been slandered by some of her own recreant sons as disloyal, I do not believe that there is to-day a more loyal State in the Union. There are, indeed, a few men here and there, scattered throughout the State, who have bitter feelings against the Government, caused by the loss of their slaves. Nothing else was to have been expected. The sudden loss by these men of what gave them consideration in society was sure to have this effect.—Yet these cases are few, and are rare exceptions to the general rule, and even these men never contemplate any further resistance to the General Government. They are, and will continue, loyal in their acts, and the soothing hand of time will reconcile them to their fate, if the Government itself only does its duty towards them.

"I repeat there is no disloyalty in North Carolina beyond the thoughtless expressions of some of her ardent youths in their hours of conviviality. Yet it cannot be denied that there is at this moment a growing feeling of discontent, occasioned by the action of Congress in refusing to admit our Senators and Representatives to their seats, and this feeling is strongest among those who have been consistent Union men throughout; but the distance between disloyalty and discontent is immense. Our people have been taught to regard it as a settled axiom in American politics that taxation without representation was a tyranny never to be submitted to by a free people. It was in vindication of this sacred principle that the revolution of 1776, which terminated in the independence of the United States, was fought. It is not, therefore, to be wondered at that there should be discontent, especially among the consistent Union men, who feel that they at least deserve well of the government. And seeing, too, that their rebel neighbors have grounded their arms and sworn allegience to the government of the United States in good faith, they cannot understand why it is that they are denied this inestimable right. They have elected men to represent them of whose loyalty there can be no doubt, and who from their antecedents ought to be acceptable to the Federal Government. * * * * * *

"A liberal and magnanimous policy towards the vanquished is undoubtedly the true course. A wise statesman would endeavor by such a course to sooth the asperities of the past. He would strive to effect a speedy reconciliation between our people of both sections upon the basis of the Constitution as it is. He would pursue such a course as would convince the people of the South that he still regarded them as his fellow-citizens, and that the Government had no other object in view, in waging the late war, than a restoration of the Union. In a republican government the people must be trusted, or the Constitution will be subverted, and the Southern people can now be safely trusted. Confidence begets confidence. Magnanimity was never thrown away except upon the basest of mankind. The people of the South are not only high-souled and chivalrous, but they are generous and susceptible. They have, indeed, been guilty of grievous errors, but they have grievously atoned for them. The bones of their first-born lie bleaching upon every battle-field, from Gettysburg to the Rio Grande. Every house has been clothed in mourning. Hundreds of thousands of the best families of the South have been reduced from ease and affluence to penury and want. Their misery is heightened by the reflection that it resulted from their own follies and crimes. In this state of mind it would have been an easy task to have reconciled them to the Government of the United States by kind and magnanimous treatment. The Union could easily have been re-established in the hearts of our people; even now it can easily be done by pursuing such a course. The Union can yet be restored, and together with it those kindly relations which characterized the earlier ages of the Republic.

One great mind seems to have fully comprehended these important truths—President Johnson. His policy is regarded by all parties here as liberal, and embraced by our people with great ardor. But while he is sustained by all parties here, it is deeply to be regretted that he is opposed by so large a portion of his own party at the North. The Republican party having had the glory of re-establishing the national authority by arms, it should have had the glory of restoring the Union by reconciling our people upon the basis of the Federal Constitution. It should have stood by and sustained its natural head, the President. If it had done this it would have entitled itself to be regarded for all time to come as the great national party of the country. By such a course it would, in all probability, have consolidated and perpetuated its power. In pursuing the course they have, the Radicals in Congress have not only adopted a ruinous policy for the country, but have committed a fatal blunder as a party.—Time and events will prove this to be so.

"Much might yet be done by that party to redeem itself. Many of its greatest leaders are highly regarded at the South, and are looked upon as national statesmen and patriots. Prominent among these, besides President Johnson, are Messrs. Seward, Doolittle, Raymond, Cowan, Dixon, and many others. Let them greatly modify, if they do not repeal, the test-oath.—As that oath stands at present, the best and the truest Union men at the South cannot take it. Let them do this, and admit all the loyal members elect from the South to their seats in Congress at once—and I have no reason to doubt the loyalty of any of them—and the feelings of our people towards the Government will be greatly changed for the better. They will then pay their taxes to the General Government with cheerfulness, and submit with pleasure to all laws made by the National Legislature. If they are determined to inflict further punishment upon the great leaders of the rebellion, in order to vindicate the majesty of the Constitution and the laws, and make treason odious, let them at least restore all such as have received the Executive clemency to all their rights as citizens of the United States, and they will find them as ready to sustain the Government against all its enemies, foreign and domestic, as the people of the North and West. At least this is my honest opinion, and, so far as the people of this good old conservative Commonwealth is concerned, I KNOW that such will be the case. The Southern people staked the doctrine of paramount State sovereignty and the institution of slavery upon the wager of battle and lost them, and they submit without a murmur. They have accepted the result in good faith, and, for the future, if kindly treated, they can be trusted."

The Standard claims to be sustaining the restoration policy of the President. He, the President, denounces the Radicals and insists on the immediate restoration of the States. The Standard opposes restoration, except upon the terms of the Radicals, and has not a word to say against their course in Congress.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Friday, March 16, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

OUR ADVERTISERS TO-DAY.—Towles will have another extensive auction of valuable Furniture, and numerous other articles, on Saturday, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Sam'l. Williams advertises a horse stolen on the night of Mar. 14. There is hardly a number of our paper in which a similar theft is not announced.

Perkinson and Lahmeyer, of Petersburg, announce a large lot of Harness and Bridle Leather, and articles in that line. Dealers would do well to give them a call.

BANK OF CAPE FEAR.—We are glad to see our friend W. H. Jones, Esq., Cashier, re-instated in his old quarters at this Institution—the business portion of the building having been, for nearly a year, occupied by the military authorities. Mr. Jones, we presume, is prepared to transact whatever business may offer.

THROUGH TICKETS.—In consequence of a want of harmony upon the part of some of the connecting Roads between Raleigh and the Northern cities, the R. & G. R. Road on yesterday discontinued the sale of Through Tickets, except to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, via Petersburg and Richmond. For tickets to those points, apply at the Ticket Office in Raleigh.

OBSTRUCTIONS TO THE PASSAGE OF FISH.—We are informed that some one below Smithfield has placed a wire seine across the Neuse, by which the passage of fish above that point is obstructed. Hitherto large quantities of Shad have been taken in the river, this side, by which our market has been, to some extent, supplied. If our information be correct, the offence is a grave one and directly contrary to the law.—It should be looked into, at once.

The Insane Asylum.

The Legislature, at its late session, in order to the better management of the Insane Asylum, passed a bill placing the Institution directly under the management of the Governor and a Board of Supervisors, five in number, the Governor being ex officio the President of the Board.

In accordance with the law, he has therefore made the following appointments for the Board of Supervisors:

GEORGE W. MORDECAI, Esq.,
HON. THOS. BRAGG,
CHARLES DEWEY, Esq.,
T. H. SELBY, Esq.,
DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD.

Better selections, we think, could not have been made.

Congress.

In the Senate, on the 14th., Mr. Davis offered a resolution that the Joint Committee on Reconstruction ought to take the testimony of a reasonable number of persons, whose names may be suggested by the Senators and Representatives from the Southern States. Of course, so reasonable a proposition was objected to, and so the resolution lies over.

The bill to increase and fix the Military Peace establishment of the government was also discussed.

The House was engaged in the consideration of a Joint Resolution making appropriation for the Paris Exhibition of 1867.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun:]

No Removals by the President at Present—Prospect of Republican and Radical Unity Improving—The New Hampshire and Connecticut Elections—Time Wanted for a Change—The Fenian Movements, &c.

WASHINGTON, March, 12. 1866.

The Senate will be disappointed in the hope they have entertained of a speedy opportunity of rejecting President Johnson's nominations. He has signified to some of them that he will make no removals at present. He would probably gratify them very much by dismissing two or three members of the cabinet and nominating political friends for their places. They would attempt to test the question, made in 1829-'30, but never decided, whether the President has the right to remove an officer without the assent of the Senate.

The President will perhaps wait for further developments of the political plans of the radicals, before he proceeds to make removals. At present the prospect of continued republican and radical unity in Congress is improving.

The New Hampshire and Connecticut elections are important, as the earliest that will occur in which the issues made by Congress with the President will be submitted to the people. The republican organization in the first named State is too strong to be overcome so early in the conflict. Time is wanted to effect any change unfavorable to radicalism. In Connecticut, commercial influences sometimes prevail over radical dictation. It would not be surprising if the State should take a conservative stand.

Clerks from all the government offices in this city, and even some heads of bureaus and assistant secretaries, have, generally, been allowed leave of absence to go home to vote. No obstruction will be offered, it is said, to the usual course. They will vote as they please, without danger of removal for that cause. No general system of proscription threatens them.

The Fenian movements have attracted some attention here. It is known that the British minister and Mr. Seward have considered the matter in reference to the duty of this government under our neutrality laws. IOTA.

Later from Europe.

We have four days later news from Europe. Two vessels supposed to be intended for Chilian privateers had been seized in the London docks. The Peruvian iron-clads were still detained by the French government at Brest, though the right to detain them was vigorously contested by the Paris Opinion Nationale, which contrasts the course pursued towards the Peruvians with the measures taken against the American "rebel" rams.

Advices from Paris with respect to the termination of the Mexican intervention grew less satisfactory with each mail.

There were rumors apparently premature, of a ministerial crisis in England and the resignation of Earl Russell.

The advance in our national bonds abroad continued. United States five-twenties were quoted in the London market on the 1st instant at 71@71¼.

GENERAL NEWS.

A LARGE BID.—We see it stated in a cotemporary, that the Adams Express Company have offered the National Express Company the sum of two millions of dollars to surrender their charter and discontinue the Express business.—We are not prepared to speak as to the correctness of this statement, but if it be true, it furnishes some idea of the immense business and resources of the mammoth company which proffers the amount.—Lynchburg News.

General Joseph E. Johnson was at Hartford Connecticut, last Wednesday.

Provisional Governor Sharkey had an interview with the President on Tuesday.

General Early has written another letter, in which he defends Mr. Davis' patriotism.

B. S. Tappan, an ex-Brigadier Confederate General, died at Vicksburg, Miss, on the 1st instant.

A curious incident occurred the other day in one of the restaurants of Philadelphia:—A rough, but shrewd looking countryman seated himself at a table, and having inspected the bill of fare, called for a piece of "Forney."—The waiter, who was a black of more than ordinary intelligence, disappeared, grinning, and returned in a moment with a slice of cold duck.

FRED. DOUGLAS WITH THE RADICALS.—Fred. Douglas lectured last night at the Assembly Rooms, on "The Issues of the Day," before a very large audience, a goodly proportion of which was composed of white persons, including a number of members of Congress. Hon. Wm. D. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, presided. Douglas alluded to the course of the President in terms of severe condemnation.—Washington Correspondence of Baltimore Sun.

The republican majority of the New York Legislature have defeated the eight-hour movement.

The rinderpest, according to the report of the United States Consul at Liverpool, is still on the increase in England.

The health of the venerable Lewis Cass is rapidly failing. He scarcely sits up at all, and his death is daily expected.

The vegetable gardens, near Norfolk, Va., promise large crops, especially, of early potatoes and tomatoes.

Lieut. Col. Wilcox, of the 15th Colored Infantry, in removing his flagstaff from his former headquarters at Nashville, Tenn., on Thursday, fell 70 feet, the fall killing him instantly.

The Radicals intend having night sessions of Congress, it is said. They are anxious to get home to inflame the popular mind and obstruct rising conservatism among the people.

It is said now that the report that the gold claimed by the Richmond banks was to be returned, was premature. The matter is still undecided, and the gold is still held as abandoned property by the Freedmen's Bureau.

ECLIPSE.—There will be a total eclipse of the moon on the evening of March 30. It begins at five minutes past nine o'clock, is at its total at twelve minutes past ten, and begins to disappear at fifty-one minutes past eleven. It is visible throughout the United States.

The House of Representatives have passed the fortification bill, in which is an item of $30,000 for Fort Monroe.

Mr. Wm. Bass, a citizen of Choctaw county, Alabama, was murdered in his bed a few nights ago by a negro.

The steamer R. H. May, burned recently on the Savannah river, had on board 331 bales of cotton, which were lost.

The Western and Atlantic railroad, Georgia, carried 1,552,000 pounds of freight one day last week.

Rev. J. L. M. Curry, formerly of the Confederate States Congress, is preaching in Montgomery, Ala.

Two ships left Charleston for Liverpool, last week, with cargoes chiefly of cotton, valued at $740,158.

The Montgomery papers announce the marriage of Major General J. E. Wheeler, of the late Confederate army, to Miss Ella Jones, daughter of Col. Richard Jones, of Lawrence county, Alabama.

Maximilian has had his salary cut down to $3,000 per day.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis arrived at Nashville on Monday last, en route for Canada, where she is to reside until a change of circumstances shall direct her return.

An effort is being made at Washington to organize, by Congressional enactment, a National Insurance Bureau, under the auspices of the Internal Revenue or Treasury Department, and to be organized somewhat after the manner of the National Bank system; the securities of the company to be in government stocks.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability. Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no other. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established
Ætna Company, of Hartford,
Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.
All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assets of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000 or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, also the promptings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15, 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,681,339 57; total disbursements $527 895 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155 244 33.
In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

Store No. 20 South Delaware Avenue,

THIS valuable Manure has been before the agricultural public, under one name for twelve years past, and its character for vigor of action and permanence in effect is well established. Before the war, it was introduced, to some extent, in the Southern States, and was found to be highly adapted to Cotton, Tobacco, and all Crops.
In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

PROSPECTUS
OLD NORTH STATE.
"The Old North State Forever."
THE undersigned will commence the publication of a Daily and Weekly Newspaper, bearing the above title, in the city of Salisbury about the 10th of March next.
The Old North State will be, under our control, a firm and decided Union paper. But while it will be firm and decided in its support of the Union, and of all just and necessary measures tending to its complete restoration, it will yet be liberal and conservative. It will oppose radicalism from whatever quarter it may come. Confiding in the loyal intentions of the great body of the people of North Carolina, it will endeavor to soothe the asperities of the past by procuring among them a spirit of reconciliation and harmony.
Rejecting the exploded dogma of perpetual State sovereignty, it will cheerfully support the National government in the exercise of every power necessary to the maintenance of its rightful authority, while it will ever contend against any encroachments upon the reserved rights of the States.
It will discuss all the various political issues of the day, but in doing this it will seek to avoid everything like partizan bitterness or personal vituperation. It will also strive to avoid that detestable practice, so common among politicians, of pandering to the passions and appealing to the prejudices of the multitude in order to accomplish partizan ends. It will endeavor to enlighten and direct aright public sentiment, by disseminating correct information, and by arguments addressed to the understanding—in short it will endeavor to erect a high standard of political morality.
Its columns will be open for Political, Moral, Literary and Agricultural articles especially, and to the advertising public.
The Old North State will be printed on new type on the following

For the Daily 12 months,	$8 00
For the Daily 6 months,	4 50

THE LOYALIST.
THE undersigned propose to publish in Louisburg, North Carolina a newspaper under the above denomination. The LOYALIST, as its name imports, will yield a firm, uniform, and frank support to the Constitution of the United States, and all laws enacted in pursuance of that great instrument. To the decisions of the Supreme Court of the nation, in such questions as originate in the interpretation or application of the principles involved in our federal jurisprudence or policy, the Loyalist will accord its unqualified acquiescence, as to the will of the American people, duly expressed through the only legitimate, determinate and sufficient medium. Its general politics will be those so long and so thoroughly taught by the patriotism, the eloquence, and the wisdom of Clay, and his departed compeers, and so fearfully vindicated by the present melancholy and hopeless condition of the communities so recently arrayed in arms against the integrity and harmony of our national union.
The Loyalist would make the institutions and independence, the material and moral dignity of the nation, as enduring and as brilliant as the stars whose images adorn the field and the folds of its flag. The loyalist will also dedicate its energies and exert its abilities to ascertain and cherish the interests, as well as to develope the immense resources of North Carolina. To the cause of education, the general diffusion of knowledge, the elevation of the masses, and the religious culture of all within its influence, it will be a consistent and inflexible friend. Its editorial department will be conducted by gentlemen whose names will be an honored inheritance.
The Loyalist will be issued, weekly, carefully printed, of the size of the Raleigh "Daily Sentinel," and furnished to patrons at $3 per annum, payable on delivery of the first number. Subscriptions and communications respectfully solicited.
